

Dear Mr.Bianco,

Thank you very much for referring me to Covenant Hospital Plainview. I was so impressed with the opportunity profile document that you provided during our first conversation as it has thorough details regarding the opportunity as well as the Plainview, TX. It got me interested in the opportunity and immediately made the position my top choice.

The interview process was well organized right from making airplane reservations to the various events during the interview. It was a pleasure to meet you at the airport terminal. Thank you for being so friendly and helpful. Like you said we were pleasantly surprised after visiting the Plainview, TX. We loved the place so much and it exceeded our expectations.

The professionalism and organization shown by your firm throughout the process was unmatched by any other recruitment firm and also it gave me a sense of security about the position and helped me to eliminate other offers in favor of the pediatrician position at Covenant Hospital Plainview.

I feel very privileged and honored to receive the job offer from Covenant Hospital Plainview and thank you again for making this happen.

Sincerely,
Hima Jyothi, M.D.
